MR. EMERSON'S SCHOOL HANNIBAL.

REV. DANIEL EMERSON, A. M., will open an English and Classical school for boys in Hannibal on the first Monday in September, in the basement of the Second Presbyterian Church. Terms, per quarter of eleven weeks. For common English Branches, Geography, Arithmetic, &c., $5.00; Higher Philosophy, Chemistry, &c., $5.00; Classics, $6.00; French, German, and Double-Entry Book-Keeping, each extra, $5.00; Fuel and care of room, 50 cents.

For information in regard to qualifications and experience, Mr. E. refers to the following testimonials:

From President Pierce.—This may certify that Mr.
Daniel Emerson was graduated at Western Reserve College in August 1859. He was alike distinguished for talent and scholarship, and held a first standing in his class. He is considered as well qualified to instruct in any department of education; but is distinguished for skill in Language, and would, it is believed, excel as a Teacher in a Classical Seminary.

From Judge Van Swearingen and Others.—I concur fully with the sentiments in the certificate of President Pierce, of the qualifications of Rev. D. Emerson to instruct in "any department of education," and cheerfully add, that I have been a constant patron of his school, taught here since its organization, and that it is surpassed by none and equalled by few within my knowledge for efficiency and government.

THOMAS VAN SWEARINGEN.
"West Erie, June 16, 1859."
"We cordially concur in the above recommendation."

GOODS.

BOUGHT BEFORE THE RISE.
THE LARGEST and the greatest assortment of goods ever brought to Hannibal, just now received, and will be sold, certain. The subscriber would particularly call the attention of his wholesale customers to this fact, and all persons coming to Hannibal to purchase goods will find it greatly to their advantage to call on

Smith & Dick's New Family Grocery, on Market street.

THEY take this method of informing the citizens of Hannibal and vicinity, that they have opened a new family grocery store on Market street, immediately north of the market house, where they intend keeping all kinds of Groceries suited to the retail trade.
We intend keeping on hand all kinds of marketing, and will be pleased to see our friends at any time when they want anything in our line. We have, and will continue to keep Fresh Meats on hand during the winter season. As we have the best opportunity of purchasing Fowls, Vegetables, &c., it will be to every man's interest to call and examine, before purchasing elsewhere, as we will have everything that can be obtained at the market house during the day.

The Footpath and Highway; or,
WANDERINGS of an American in Great Britain, in 1851 and '52. By Benjamin Morgan. This volume embodies the observations of the author, made during eight months wanderings, as a correspondent for American Journals; and as he traveled much on foot, differs essentially from those on the same countries, by other writers.

New Themes for the Protestant Clergy;
CREEDS without Charity, Theology without Humanity, and Protestantism without Christianity;
with Notes by the Editor on the Literature of Charity, Population, Pauperism, Political Economy, and Protestantism. The great question which the book discusses is, whether the Church of this age is what the primitive Church was, and whether Christians—both pastors and people—are doing their duty. Our author believes not, and, to our mind, he has made out a strong case. He thinks there is abundant room for reform at the present time, and that it is needed almost as much as in the days of Luther.

Well conceived, ably narrated, and contains scenes of great dramatic power."
"One of the most interesting books we have ever read. A thousand times more truthful than 'Uncle Tom.' There will be a universal rush for it."—[Atlanta (Ga.) Republican.

"This is just the work for the times. The incidents are so thrilling that the reader's attention is fixed after the perusal of the first sentence."—[Marlboro' (Md.) Gazette.

The Footpath and Highway; or,
WANDERINGS of an American in Great Britain,
in 1851 and '52. By Benjamin Morgan. This volume embodies the observations of the author, made
during eight months wanderings, as a correspondent
for American Journals; and as he traveled much on
foot, differs essentially from those on the same countries, by other writers.

New Themes for the Protestant Clergy;
CREEDS without Charity, Theology without Humanity, and Protestantism without Christianity;
with Notes by the Editor on the Literature of Charity, Population, Pauperism, Political Economy, and Protestantism. The great question which the book discusses is, whether the Church of this age is what the primitive Church was, and whether Christians—both
pastors and people—are doing their duty. Our author
the present time, and that it is needed almost as much as in the days of Luther.
